COUNCIL ENTERTAINS APPEALS FOR RELIEF

The regular meeting of the town council on Monday night was attended by the mayor and all councillors. The minutes of previous regular meeting were approved, and individual requests for relief work or financial assistance were heard from a number of citizens, one of whom had a family of seven children and another six, and still another five, all claiming they were unable to provide their families with food and the clothing necessary for the winter. One of the trio was found to be residing outside the town limits, consequently came within the jurisdiction of provincial authorities for attention. Another claimed that with an increase in family of a boy, he had had a cow and several other children to care for, which he could not expect to do on a mere one or two days' work per week. He asked the council to provide hay for the cow, the biggest eater of the family. Council promised to do all possible towards relief.

The council would not entertain the proposition of buying coal from a non-resident or that was not mined locally, Councillor Pessini stating that he would not take the staff as a gift and then look to the local industry for employment. Other councillors were of the same opinion.

A number of accounts were passed for payment and the meeting adjourned.

C. J. TOMPKINS IS ACCIDENT VICTIM

An accident that came very near having fatal results, occurred at about 7:50 p.m. yesterday, when a car being driven by Mr. C. J. Tompkins, 518 1/2 St. Lawrence Street, crossed the road near Gold Creek at Frank Plouffe's heading over a mass of rocks into the creek bed. Shortly after the accident, Dr. Ross, who happened to be enroute to Blairmore, happened to notice the glimmer of the tail light and stopped. By the time he had reached the marooned car, others had arrived and assisted in extricating the unconscious driver. For a time it was felt that his injuries were very serious, but upon examination at the Blairmore hospital it was found that beyond a bruise on the head and possibly a broken nose, he is not seriously injured. He regained consciousness shortly after entering the hospital and as we go to press is reported doing well.

The car, a Chevrolet sedan, was removed to the garage of the Crown's Next Pass Motors, where it was found to be but little damaged.

ONLY TEN PER CENT HAVE PERFECT TEETH

As a result of an examination made recently by Drs. Hoar and Little, it has been found that only ten per cent of the children attending the local schools have perfect teeth, and that considerable of the ninety per cent need immediate attention. Plans are being made by the Board to continue the work begun by the two local dentists.

The following figures taken from the report submitted will be of interest:

Children examined 443, found c.k. 49, temp. teeth to extract 549, perm. teeth to extract 190, temp. teeth to fill 659, perm. teeth to fill 815, absences 47. Charts of the above may be examined at the local dental offices.

Report submitted October 29th.

OLD TIMER PREDICTS DEMOCRATIC VICTORY 1932

"Morlan Bill" Beard, an old time sawpuncher and scout, who is credited with having made many a redskin "bite the dust" in the early days of Utah and Montana, and later a contractor who lost a huge fortune helping to build the Canadian Pacific railroad, is sure that we will have a Democratic President after the next presidential election, "according to signs which have not failed for forty years" he says.

The old timer points to the fact that every time the Conservative party in Canada has won the reigns of government, we have had a Democratic administration in the United States. As the Conservative party won the recent election in the Dominion, there will surely follow a Democratic victory here in 1932, says Beard, who with his wife lives peacefully and quietly on the Silver Ranch near Burbank, after years of experience filled with the thrills and excitement that only a pioneer couple can know.

"Don't get the idea that I give a damn about politics, we just happened to notice that about the elections here and up north," says the old chap, with a snort.—Down Town News in Los Angeles, California.

"Bill" Beard will be remembered by old timers of this district, having away back some twenty-odd years ago operated a lumber camp south of Blairmore. His present address is 1808 W. Verdejo Avenue, Burbank, California.

Britain and a Wheat Preference

Whatever hopes may have been entertained by a considerable section of the Canadian people, our Western farmers in particular, that, as a result of the Imperial Economic Conference, the British Government would grant a preference to the wheat of the Dominion through the imposition of a Customs tariff on all foreign-grown wheat, have gone a glimmering with the definite announcement of Premier Ramsay MacDonald that the British Government will not take this action because it cannot be done.

The British Government is extremely anxious to help out the food producers of the Dominions. It is most desirous of promoting and developing Empire trade. It is willing to do everything it can, but it will not place a Customs tariff on the food of its own people because it cannot do so. As an alternative it is giving serious consideration to bulk purchasing of wheat by the Government with a view through such bulk purchasing to giving a preference to Empire-grown wheat.

Undoubtedly there will be regret and disappointment in this country over Britain's decision. It is to be hoped such feelings will not be allowed to develop into anything approaching bitterness or antagonism towards the Old Country. Canadians generally should strive to understand and appreciate the British position. They should realize the facts of the situation.

In Great Britain this is not a political issue in a partisan sense. Liberals, Conservatives and Labour are all of one mind that, whatever preferential policies may be evolved at this time, they cannot include taxation of food supplies. Mr. Baldwin, who is more favorably disposed towards adoption of a policy of tariffs than either Ramsay MacDonald or Lloyd George, nevertheless made it clear he did not intend to include tariffs on wheat and other food supplies and raw materials in his programme.

Here is the situation. Great Britain is a country small in area but with a large population. It raises only a small fraction of the food its people require. It is a highly industrialized country, yet the variety of its natural raw products for purposes of manufacturing industry is small and strictly limited. It secures the world for food supplies and raw products in order that it may exist. In order to pay for such food supplies and raw materials it must sell its manufactured goods abroad. Taxing its food and raw materials would so increase costs of production that it could not compete with other nations engaged in manufacturing but which likewise possess large food producing areas and need raw materials, as, for example, United States, Canada, Germany.

Now consider Britain's trade position with two countries, Canada and Argentina, by way of illustrating the position of the Old Country. Both countries have large surpluses of wheat for export; both are anxious to sell in the British market. Britain has two main articles she is anxious to export in large quantities—manufactured goods of all kinds and coal. The Argentine lacks coal, and is prepared to purchase it from Britain in exchange for wheat. Canada, on the other hand, is rich in coal deposits and is averse to large importations of coal from Britain entering into competition with Canadian miners. The Argentine is not a large manufacturing nation, and she is prepared to purchase extensively in Britain, selling her wheat and meat products in exchange. Canada, on the other hand, is a manufacturing as well as an agricultural country. Its production of manufactured goods per head of population is one of the highest in the world. Canada is capable of manufacturing not only all the steel, textiles, boots and shoes, paper, automobiles, and a multitude of other articles required by her own people, but enjoys a large export trade in manufactures of all kinds. Canada, therefore, taken as a whole, is not anxious to take manufactured goods from Britain in exchange for wheat, meats, and various raw materials.

Therefore, notwithstanding a sentimental desire to favor Canada as a sister nation of the Empire, Britain simply cannot afford to impose a tariff against the Argentine and jeopardize her profitable trade with, and her huge investments in, that country. As Premier Ramsay MacDonald has stated: "We cannot do it."

Nations are like individuals in many respects, but in none more emphatically than in this, that they will buy where they can buy the cheapest and where they can sell their own goods and products in payment for what they do buy. Sentiment may alter this to some extent, but it can never overcome it.

The Americans, North and South, are food-exporting countries, with wheat the big item; so, too, is Australia, New Zealand, India, and so has Russia been in the past and will be in the future. China and Japan need food, but the economic position of vast millions of their people is not such as to enable them to buy high priced wheat. The wheat exporting countries must, therefore, look to Europe. But Europe, impoverished by war, with unemployment, rise, burdened with enormous debt, no longer possesses the purchasing power to buy high priced imported food products. Her people are going for food to the near and far, but they are not in a position to pay the export of money abroad which the nations must retain at home.

In the circumstances, what is Britain to do? Further restrict the markets for her manufactured goods by imposing tariffs against those countries which are prepared to buy from her in exchange for the sale of food products and raw materials, thus intensifying her own unemployment problem and at the same time increasing the cost of food to her people and of needed raw materials for her industries?

The British Labour Government says "it cannot be done"; the British Liberal party says "it cannot be done"; the British Conservative party, while favoring tariffs to "safeguard" Britain's industries, says in regard to food and raw materials "it cannot be done." It is, we repeat, not a political question in a party sense in Great Britain; it is an economic question. And in Canada, whatever our sentiments, desires, interests, or political views and opinions may be, it is just and right that we should at least look at and appreciate the British point of view.

Boy Quite Sure King's Absence Would

Not Disappoint His Parents
When the King was in Yorkshire on one occasion he promised to review a boys' brigade. At the last minute, however, His Majesty was forced to cancel the engagement, and a local notability was hastily substituted, but the managers of the affair thought it only right to notify ticket purchasers that Royalty would not be present. Presently a small boy, who was to take part in the parade, came along with a request for two tickets for his parents. He was told of the disappointment in store for them. "Oh," said the lad, "they'll not be disappointed! It's not the King that father and mother are coming to see—it's me!"

Wild Life Valuable

Canada realizes quite a revenue each year from its wild life. According to Dr. H. P. Lewis, of the Department of the Interior, this wild life has a capital valuation of one billion dollars and a yearly business turnover of about $45,000,000. This valuation includes the fur harvest, game fish, and their influence on sales of sports goods.

Where eggs were anything but a dependable article of diet twelve or fifteen years ago, today Canadian eggs of the higher grades are looked upon as quite safe to offer anyone for breakfast and need not be broken before coming to the table. Northern Indians Need Help

Federal Government To Take Steps To Relieve Distress

Hon. T. G. Murphy, Minister of Interior, is taking immediate steps to relieve distress among Indians who have neither money nor food to carry them through the winter. Discussing the conditions of these wards of the state, Mr. Murphy said that the Indians on the southern reserves, where agriculture is the main source of livelihood, are in fair shape for the winter months, and it is not expected that federal assistance will be needed.

On the northern reserves, where trapping is the only occupation, the Indians, in many cases, have had a bad year and are in urgent need of succor. The problem, he intimated, was not a purely unseasonal or extraordinary one. It is a matter of fact that fur-bearing animals in these areas are rapidly disappearing as a result of operations of white trappers.

The Indians on these northern reserves are unable to catch enough fur within the limits of the reservation to make a living, and they have been accustomed to trap over contiguous territory. These non-reserve areas belong to the provinces. The federal government has no control over them.

The Indian, said Mr. Murphy, is a fur farmer, and does not exterminate wild life. But the white trappers who have gone into these areas, under private license, have had no regard for the preservation of wild life and have seriously depleted the numbers of fur-bearing animals. For this reason, many of the northern tribes are now in distress.

The Indian affairs branch of the interior department, under instruction from Mr. Murphy, is making a rapid survey of the situation and relief will be given at an early date.

Consuming More
The people of the United States are smoking more and more cigarettes. Last year they consumed about 1,000 per man, woman and child, but the reports for the first eight months of this year show an excess over those of the same period for last year of 200,000,000. Benjamin D. Hill, chief of the tobacco division of the Department of Commerce, assumes that the increase will continue until the end of the year.

In times of business depression or periods of great stress, it has been the experience of the tobacco industry, that consumption of cigarettes increases.

Four Doses Relieved Bad Attack of Cholera

Mr. W. J. Cooper, Maugham, Alta., writes: "A year ago last spring I arrived in Canada with my family, and one of my boys, aged six, was suffering very much with cholera. When we arrived I had a few hours to wait, and told one of the attendants at the station about it, and he asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. IN MUTUAL TRUST LIES THE WAY TO SOLUTION OF WAR

London, England.—The Prince of Wales told delegates to the Imperial Conference that in the establishment of international habits of co-operation and mutual trust lies the way to the solution of war. He spoke at a banquet to the delegates in the Guildhall, his words coming clearly to thousands of Canadians by means of radio broadcast.

"Britain and her Dominions," he said, "have solved the problem of disarmament among themselves and relegated war to the scrap heap. Is it too much to hope that the other three-quarters of the world, despite difference in language, ancient enmities and mistrusts, may tread the same path?"

The approach of Armistice Day, he asserted, "recalls that awful period when the British Empire demonstrated to the world its true complete solidarity as the greatest brotherhood the world has ever known, and its readiness to help in the creation of a similar brotherhood among all nations."

"There remain those who profess a disbelief in the ability of the League of Nations to prevent war, but what," he asked, "have they to offer as an alternative for the establishment of peace and the rebuilding of world prosperity?"

The $10,000 loot, apparently dropped by the robbers in their dash towards the woods of Queen's Park, was recovered. It was found on the grounds of the mental hospital, reaching safely in a small drawer which had been removed from the safe.

Pledge Not Kept

British Government Protests Against Continuation Of Soviet Propaganda

London, England.—The British Government has made representations to Soviet Russia that the Moscow Government has not been observing its pledge against propaganda exchange between the two countries or the resumption of relations.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, foreign secretary, divulged in the House of Commons that this representation had been made as a result of inquiry into propaganda carried on by the Third Internationale in Great Britain and other parts of the Empire.

"I asked the ambassador to impress seriously on his government that continuation of this propaganda would be calculated to endanger relations between the two countries. The ambassador, continued Mr. Henderson, 'said that the Soviet government would consent to observe the pledge but could not control the activities of the Third Internationale.'"

Loud Conservative cries greeted this statement, but the matter was allowed to drop.

Prospectors Drown In Northern Manitoba Lake

News Of Tragedy Reveals Tale Of Heroism

The Pas, Man.—Lakes of Northern Manitoba took their first human toll of the season when two prospectors, Charles Stabback and Fred Miller, drowned. They crashed through thin ice while travelling across Herb Lake.

Details reaching The Pas from the north, indicate a typical northern tale of heroism lies behind the tragedy. The men were travelling by dog team with a canoe on the sled. One prospector fell in while the other was able to save himself. He ran to the shore, not far away, obtaining a long pole and attempted to save his companion. Blundering through raging snow storm that swept the Herb Lake area, he met death with his companion. The pole was floating on the surface of the water to mark the tragedy for searchers. The bodies were recovered.

Brandon Entry Wins Egg Laying Contest

Race For Honors Was Between Saskatchewan and Manitoba Birds

Brandon, Man.—The white leghorn entry of John R. Beer, Brandon, won the eleventh Manitoba egg laying contest conducted by Brandon experimental farm. The closing weeks of the contest were exceedingly interesting as the final outcome was in doubt until the last few days. During the summer months there were several pens with an equal chance of winning the contest, but during the final month the race for premier honors was between the barred rock entry of W. C. Wroth's Sutton poultry farm, Wexley, Sask., and the white leghorns entered by J. R. Beer.

At the close of the contest Mr. Beer's pen had a total of 2,270 eggs and 2,297 points, and the barred rocks owned by W. C. Wroth had a total of 2,207 eggs and 2,271 points.

Recover Part Of Money Only

Winnipeg Police Succeed In Locating Only Part Of Lost Bank Robbers

Winnipeg, Man.—Detectives of central police headquarters made records in the fast round-up of alleged bandits in the Transcona Bank of Toronto robbery on October 1, but they have had little success, despite diligent search, in locating the majority of the $12,000 loot.

Ten persons were arrested in connection with the robbery, one is now under sentence of three years in the penitentiary, three others have been committed for trial, and charges are pending against the others. Only $3,000 of the $12,000 secured by the bandits has been recovered, and a "mystery man" is believed to have escaped with the missing $9,000.

Pool Guarantees

Information In Connection With Wheat Pool Loans Will Be Given In January

Winnipeg, Man.—At about the end of January, "loans" to the Prairie Provinces in connection with their backing of Wheat Pool loans, will be definitely known, according to the statement of Premier John Bracken, of Manitoba. Mr. Bracken, who says that the prairies may lose more than $10,000,000 unless wheat prices improve, considers that the position of the provinces will not be determined until the untold 1929 grain is disposed of. He says, in about three months.

No ultimate loss will accrue to Alberta in any case, states Premier J. E. Brownlee, who claims that "it will all be taken care of by the Wheat Pool." He states that the prairie governments are not being pressed to meet the guarantees they offered to the lending banks and characterizes "any talk as a matter of speculation." No stand on the question has been taken by Saskatchewan's premier, Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, beyond saying that when the governments deem a statement necessary it will be made.

Premier Bracken at a luncheon described the $10,000,000 loan figure as "somebody's guess."

Changes In B.C. Cabinet

Reorganization Completed With Swearing In Of New Officers

Victoria, B.C.—Reorganization of the cabinet of Premier S. F. Tolmie was completed with the swearing in of the re-arranged slate before the Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. R. R. Bruce.

Hon. F. R. Burden retires from the government and his place as Minister of Lands is taken by Hon. N. S. Loughheed, former Minister of Public Works.

Hon. R. W. Bruhn, former president of the council, takes the portfolio of Public Works.

Hon. W. C. Shelly, former Minister of Finance, becomes President of the Council.

Hon. J. W. Jones, former speaker of the Legislature, becomes Minister of Finance.

Mr. Burden will go to London as agent-general for the province, succeeding F. A. Pauline.

Home Government Will Not Interfere

Dominions May Choose Governor-Generals For Appointment By King

London, England.—The Daily Herald says one of the most important results of the Imperial Conference of last week was the assurance of the home government in selection for governor-generals for the dominions.

The paper said a method of procedure had been worked out in committee, and that in the future each governor-general would be appointed by the King solely in consultation with and on the advice of the dominion government.

SUGGEST BONUS TO ASSIST THE WHEAT FARMER

Ottawa, Ont.—A proposal that the Dominion Government grant a bonus to western wheat farmers whose wheat crops were caught in the rain and snow storms this fall is being given serious consideration by the Department of Agriculture. It costs three cents a bushel to dry tough wheat and five cents a bushel to dry damp wheat.

The proposal which the department has under consideration is said to be that the Dominion offer to pay one and a half cents a bushel on the grain caught in the storms if the province would pay a like amount. Should Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, decide to recommend to his colleagues that the government make such an offer, it would be accompanied by the provision that it would only apply to a limited number of bushels for each farmer.

The misfortune of having the crops injured by rains has made more acute the situation of the prairie farmers, already serious because of the low price grain is bringing. It is known that Mr. Weir has been studying every suggestion to cope with the difficulty regardless of from where the suggestions emanated.

Hon. George Hoadley, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, suggested that the Dominion Government provide free drying facilities at the terminal elevators. This has been studied by the Federal Department and it is understood many obstacles presented themselves, one was the vast amount of bookkeeping that would be necessary to differentiate between the wheat entitled to free drying and that which would be paid for. Often in drying, wheat becomes bleached, and suffers loss of a grade. The question would arise whether the government in case of free drying, would be liable for loss caused by such improper drying. Experts estimate that much of the wheat caught in the rains would maintain 30 per cent. moisture. One point has been raised whether it would be economical to transport all this wheat to terminal elevators, whether it would not be much more profitable to feed it as it is.

One problem of course which applies both to a bonus and free drying would be that the farmers with big crops would reap the greatest benefit, whereas the people most in need of assistance would be small farmers. For this reason it has been suggested that the number of bushels on which a bonus be paid to any one farmer would be limited. Should a bonus be decided upon it would not be taken out of the $20,000,000 voted to deal with unemployment, but from some other vote.

Feed grain to livestock is looked upon as the most logical way of alleviating the western situation, but many cannot buy the livestock and in a number of districts shortage of water supply makes livestock farming difficult.

FREIGHT RATES ON ALBERTA COAL ARE REDUCED

Ottawa, Ont.—Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Mines, has announced that as a special measure to assist unemployment conditions prevailing in the coal fields of Alberta, the Board of Railway Commissioners had authorized the movement of Alberta coals to Ontario at a freight rate of $6.75 per ton, to be effective from October 23 to December 1 of this year.

The government had received from the Canadian coal committee and other coal interests in Alberta appeals for the assistance now being granted with a view of alleviating restrictions in mine output by sending supplies to the Ontario market. Placed before the Board of Railway Commissioners and the railways these representations said Mr. Gordon, had met with sympathetic response.

The coal will move under the provisions of Order-in-Council P.C. 439, which has for its object test rates for the movement of Alberta coals to Ontario and the encouragement of inter-provincial coal movements. The Order-in-Council specifies a reduced freight rate of $6.75 per ton to be effective for not less than three months in each year during the time of operation which was first named to cover the period from March 16, 1928, to March 15, 1931, but by a later Order-in-Council was extended for another year, to March 15, 1932.

The minister explained that while the railway board's present order is a special measure to provide the coal movement to take place wholly as an aid to the unemployment situation, he has the assurance of the Board of Railway Commissioners that before the period expires the board will issue another order making effective the $6.75 freight rate from December 1, 1930, to July 31, 1931, as a regular movement under the Order-in-Council. This means that from October 23 of the present year to July 31 of next year there will be continuous shipments under the reduced freight rate.

Reduce Initial Payment

Wheat Pool Makes Reduction On Initial Payment On Barley

Winnipeg, Man.—A five-cent-per-bushel reduction in the initial payment on barley was announced by the central selling agency of the Canadian Wheat Pool. Initial payment on the basis of No. 3 C.W. barley at Fort William will thus amount to 20 cents a bushel.

The reduction applies to all the malting grades and No. 3 C.W. Payment spreads on the lower grades have been narrowed somewhat, and are as follows: No. 4 C.W., initial payment, 17 cents; No. 5 C.W., 16 cents; No. 6 C.W., 14 cents, with a minimum payment of 12 cents a bushel on lower grades.

The Pool's initial payment was appreciably higher than the street price paid by the trade for barley, it is pointed out by the coarse grains committee of the central board in explaining the reduction. Since the recent slump in barley prices, prices quoted have been particularly lower on the higher grades produced in Manitoba. This, and "increasing deliveries of barley to the Pool made it absolutely necessary to reduce the initial payment," the Pool announcement said.

Earthquakes In Italy

Three Shocks Take Toll Of 15 Lives and Injure Several Hundred People

Senigaglia, Italy.—Three earthquakes shook numerous cities along the upper Adriatic coast, taking at least 15 lives and injuring several hundred persons.

Property damage was enormous, but it was considered remarkable that the toll of lives was not greater. For scarcely a building in the cities of Ancona and Senigaglia escaped damage and the quake struck terror to a score of towns and villages across 1,000 square miles of northern Italy.

Casualty figures were made available by the ministry of the interior, and though it was almost certain they would increase as additional information was received, it was thought unlikely that more than 35 or 40 had been killed in all the quake zone.

KEEP MONEY AT HOME

The time of the year is at hand when we of the West are called upon to gird on our armor of defense to protect ourselves against the swarm of super salesmen let loose upon the plains. This is popularly supposed to be the period of the year when money flows freely in Western Canada and guns from far-off business houses are trained upon us. Flocks of agents arrive at every door and in the next two months the average housewife will be offered great opportunities to buy everything from needles to threshing machines.

To be sure the salesmen are total strangers, more often than not representing some unheard of concern and the whole undertaking is dependent on implicit trust on the part of the victim. Sometimes the salespeople are pathetic, sometimes fascinating. But all too often they make sales. They peddle their dubious wares up and down the country, encroaching on fields in which they have no right, and returning none of their profits to this country in which they operate. This is the main objection to these flitting salesmen. They take a great amount of money out of this district which is never returned in any form to the local district. The same sums spent with local business houses would be distributed in various methods in this vicinity. They would return to us in the forms of taxes, staple purchases, support of every religious, philanthropic or social effort. Every organization and society in town looks for its promotion and support to local people. But how are local people to be in a position to give as liberally as they would like if business which should gravitate to them is picked up by transient poachers.

It is not that most of us are de liberately disloyal. In succumbing to the lure of the swarthy salesman, we are unwilling but weak. A wholesale campaign of discouragement might prove effective in black listing this district so that the average person would be released from the hourly demand on time and money.

One method of discouragement might, I'm trying to sell the agent himself something. As he stands at the door all ready to bubble "Mrs. Blank, you have been recommended to me by a highly intelligent woman, likely to appreciate this remarkable offer," Mrs. Blank might forestall him with, "Do come in. I just want to take a few minutes of your time to show you this magnificent chair or table or what not that I am offering on good terms for today only." If she could prepare a high-powered, non-stop sales talk she would be definitely and completely rid of her enemy, besides treating herself to a pleasant time. A little co-operation would rid the community of a definite nuisance.

In a season like this, when a spirit of mutual helpfulness must be the aim of every community, we should discourage outside expenditure.—Ex.

GOING A BIT TOO FAR

Building opinion on press reports, one is led to believe that Premier Bennett has gone a bit too far in his jingo trading campaign. Several prominent American statesmen take the stand that the new Canadian tariff was directed against the United States, but there is a growing tendency in Canada to the belief that the tariff was directed against Britain.

While this may not have been the intention, the attitude of the premier is giving voice to statements that in themselves were nothing more or less than threats, leads one to the belief that he has a chip on his shoulder. He may have been telling the truth, but sometimes the truth had better be left unsaid, especially if a certain arrogance must be used in the telling. Canadians generally will gain nothing from the premier's visit to the imperial conference. His utterances have created a certain hostility and resentfulness that will prove unwholesome to Canada.

Britishers are methodical thinkers and are not easily startled and above all they do not like being told where "to head in."—Kimberley Press.

THE PASSING OF REV. DR. McQUEEN

In the passing of Rev. Dr. McQueen, pioneer minister of Edmonton, this city and province loses a gentleman of high and sterling character, who during the long term of his ministry of forty-three years endeared himself not only to his own flock but to all whose fortune it was to know him.

Rev. Dr. McQueen came to the Canadian West when this country was but a wilderness populated for the most part by Indians and halfbreeds. He saw the West's every step of development and gave of his best to the building up of this new land of his adoption; he leaves the imprint of his strong, generous, and loving personality amongst all classes, wherever he was known.

Today our province of Alberta is entirely free from every manner of sectarian strife. Our people are living in contentment and peace. We are blessed indeed.

For this serenity, for this freedom from unseemly strife, always begotten of unreasoning bigotry, we are indebted in great measure to men of the calibre and mould of the late Dr. McQueen. May his life and work be for each of us a lesson; may his name and fame remain long in the memory of Albertans.—The Western Catholic.

A delightful shower was held on Wednesday afternoon in the suite of Mrs. Flaherty at the King Edward hotel in honor of Miss Christine Montaletti, who is to become the bride of Mr. William McFarland, of Carmanagay, on November 12th. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion with beautiful mums and carnations. A huge bell was suspended from the ceiling over the table on which the gifts were placed.

Many gifts of silver and linen were received by the bride-to-be in a charming manner. Tea was served at 4:30 and fortune-telling over the tea cups proved very amusing. About twenty ladies were present to wish her happiness on her coming marriage.

The bride and groom will spend a month's honeymoon on the Pacific coast—Pincher Creek Echo.

CORBIN HAPPENINGS (From Our Own Correspondent)

Friday evening witnessed all Corbinites travelling to the Club hall to take part in the Halloween revels going on therein. As people entered the door they were given a gay cap and told to join in the fun. The hall was very appropriately decorated for the occasion with wiches, cats, owls, pumpkins, etc. Mr. D. Waddington and Barney Lyne provided very excellent music throughout the evening, upon which they are to be congratulated. Supper was served at midnight, after which dancing continued till 2.30 a.m. Prizes given during the course of the evening were as follows: Robert Shaw, for the lucky number; Mrs. Joe Matt, for keeping her balloon the longest, and Mrs. Joe Matt and Louie Vasek for being under the lucky spot.

The hockey boys are very pleased with the success of their dance, and plan to have several such occasions during the winter.

Miss S. G. Timmins, principal, and Miss A. Wilson, primary teacher of the Corbin school, attended the district teachers' convention held at Ferrie on Friday and Saturday of last week. Miss Timmins took a class of pupils to Fernie. These children very ably dramatized a part of parliamentary procedure for the benefit of the assembled teachers.

Mrs. W. Crossfield has her brother, Mr. McGovern, visiting with her at present.

The usual crowd of kiddies, in costumes many and varied, made their annual trip from house to house for Halloween apples on Friday night.
This is the gala night of all the year for youngsters.

Mrs. Morrison, of Coleman, was a visitor here over the week end.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Mrs. McEwen and Master Sandy moved to Blairmore the latter part of last week.

Miss Verdun Leigh went to Calgary on Saturday, where she will enter St. Hilda's college. Mrs. Leigh journeyed there on Monday, where she joined her in their new home.

Miss Beasle Cooper, of Calgary, paid her sister Aileen a visit here
the early part of the week.

George Elston, of Lethbridge, is visiting again in the district.

One of the best Halloween parties ever held here was staged in the I.O.
O.F. hall on Friday night. Mrs.
George Porter, Mrs. Christie and Mrs. Dick Alexander deserve a lot of credit for getting this most successful party up in a very short time.
Nuts, candies, apples, etc., were generously donated by the town merchants and others. After merry making came to an end, an appetizing luncheon was served by the ladies of the town.

The Heatherington sale, which took place on the 29th at the late J. C.
Dewry ranch, was unusually well attended. Sales on all live stock and poultry, etc., are reported as having gone very high, in many instances considerably above the market prices.

Several local citizens took in the show at Lundbreck on Wednesday of last week and reported an exciting time.

Ed. LaBrie has moved his family into Mrs. McEwen's house, while James Smyth and family are moving into James Leigh's house.

A Halloween party was enjoyed by the youngsters of the junior room of the village school on Friday afternoon.

Several local teachers are attending the convention at Lethbridge.

Annual Armistice-Thanksgiving

Services on Monday Next

The annual Armistice-Thanksgiving service will be held in the Orpheum Theatre, Blairmore, on Monday next at 10.45 a.m., under the joint auspices of the I.O.D.E. and Blair-more Branch of the Canadian Legion, following is the programme:

Two Minutes' Silence (To permit meditation and prayer)

Anthem—"O CANADA"

O Canada! Our home, our native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command,
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North, strong and free;
And stand on guard, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.

O Canada! O Canada!
O Canada! We stand on guard for thee.
O Canada! We stand on guard for thee.

Memorial Prayer—REV. J. W. SMITH, B.D.

Address—HIS WORSHIP MAYOR J. H. FARMER

Hymn—"O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST"

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream,
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be Thou our guard while trouble lasts,
And our eternal home. [Amen]

—Isaac Watts, 1674-1748.

Scripture Reading—REV. A. S. PARTINGTON

Prayer

Address—J. E. GILLIS, B.A.

Hymn—"LEAD KINDLY LIGHT"

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on;
The night is dark and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on;

Keep Thou my feet, I do not ask to see
The distant scene, one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou Shouldst lead me on;

I loved to choose and see my path, but now
Lead Thou me on;

I loved the garish day, and, spite of tears,
Pride ruled my will, remember not past years.

So long Thy pow'r hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;

And with the morn those angel-faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

ACCIDENT VICTIM

IS LAID TO REST

The funeral services for the late Thomas "Tommy" Hale, who suddenly passed away on Saturday night from the result of a motor accident in Frank, were held from the home of deceased at Hillcrest at 2.30 on Thursday, Oct. 30. A large number of friends from the Pass attended, many among the number being members of the Great War Veterans' association, of which he also had been a respected member of cheerful disposition.

Rev. R. Taylor, of Lethbridge, and Rev. J. Woods, of Bellevue, presided at the services, both extending comfort and consolation to the bereaved.
Interment was made in the Hillcrest cemetery.

The late "Tommy" Hale was born in Nova Scotia in 1880, and came out to this district in 1910. He resided here for 20 years, being occupied in coal mining, and was among the well known old-timers throughout the Pass. In 1914 he enlisted with the Canadian forces in the Great War, serving through the whole period. His sudden death was a shock to the entire community, who extend their sympathy to the bereaved wife and family.

A Union Jack was arranged about the casket, with a profusion of beautiful floral offerings of chrysanthemums and roses. Flanders poppies were worn by the large crowd, and a shower of poppies was dropped into the grave during service at the graveside.

Deceased is survived by his sorrowing wife; Mr. and Mrs. T. Hunter, stepson and wife; David and Mary,
and a sister in the East.—Ex.

A Halloween prank that borders closely upon an attempt at manslaughter was committed near Coleman, when the highway was blocked by logs placed across it. Shortly after they had been placed, a car containing two men and several ladies approached, and in an attempt to avoid hitting the obstacle overturned, injuring several of the party. We understand that the police are on the trail of the guilty ones.

HEADACHES

Ended by Kruschen

"I was a martyr to headaches, with frequent attacks of dizziness affecting my vision. My occupation is a very sedentary one—a printer's reader, and I was suffering from the same. I gave Kruschen Salts a good trial, and from then onwards I seemed quite another person. The headaches disappeared and the dizziness, and the most wonderful thing to me is that I have gone back to weaker glasses, a lens which I had discarded some years ago as not being strong enough. I also suffered from indigestion during the early mornings of winter. Now at 58 I can enjoy cold baths all the year round, enjoy an eager for my food, and an what I consider very fit—the sort of fitness that makes living a joy."—(G. F.)

Headaches can nearly always be traced to a disordered stomach or to partial constipation—a complaint many indoor workers suffer from without ever suspecting it. The Kruschen Salts go right down to the root of the trouble and remove the cause by gently stimulating the organs of elimination to function exactly as Nature intended they should.

Reverse Only Temporary

Britain Not Likely To Abandon Imperial Air Program

In its stunning effect upon the public consciousness, the disaster to the R-101 may be likened to that which overtook the "Titanic" before the war. But the loss of the largest, fastest and fastest trans-Atlantic liner that had been built up to that time has not prevented the British from continuing to produce great ocean-going vessels. In fact, liners now on the stocks or projected exceed in size, speed and superb furnishings anything ever before contemplated. The terrible mishap to the R-101 will doubtless delay Britain's dream of an all-embracing Empire air service, if only for the reason that so many of her air experts have been lost. But it may be taken for granted that the British will not abandon the Imperial air programme of which we heard so much on the recent visit of the R-100 to this country. All down through her history, the Mother Country has displayed a genius for converting failure into success—for turning temporary reverses into lasting triumphs.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

FOR THE FIRST BRISK FALL DAYS

Smart women have adopted the sheer woolen frocks for street and spectator sports.

The model illustrated expresses new chic in its dignified tailored lines. It achieves smart individuality through its buttoned vest and wrapped arrangement of the bodice.

The sleeves are suggestive of leg-o-mutton shaping. It's very slender through the hips. Style No. 922 is designed in sizes 16, 18, 20 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust.

It's easily made! You'll find the new woolens of lightweight texture quite as easy to handle as the silk crepes.

It's effectively carried out in woolen crepe in favorite dark green tones. The vest is of plain green in the darkest tone of the pattern.

Tweed in knitted effect in red is swaggar. Make the vest of matching red shade woven with black diagonal stripes. Match the stripes at the center, and trim with black buttons.

Black cotton crepe with white, brown wool jersey of knitted weave with beige, and tweed printed silk with white shade with plain crepe of blending shade are ideally suited to this model.

Size 36 requires 2 1/2 yards 54-inch with 3/4 yard 30-inch for collar and cuffs, 1/2 yard 36-inch for vest.

Send 25 cents (in stamps or coin) to Fashion Bureau. Write carefully and plainly your name and full address, the number of the pattern and the size you want.

Tenth Anniversary Of Radio Broadcasting

Although Opportunities Were Restricted Development Has Been Rapid

The tenth anniversary of radio broadcasting, which gave the industry its greatest impetus, was celebrated a few weeks ago. The first program was on the air from a Pittsburgh station in 1920, and some weeks later this same station introduced radio to politics by broadcasting returns of the Harding-Cox election. Crystal-detector sets were then the last word in reception, and it was necessary for members of the family to take turns at wearing the earphones. Restricted as were its opportunities, however, broadcasting developed so rapidly that within a few years the air was overcrowded and the Government was seeking some form of regulation.

The substitution of electrified vacuum-tube sets for those with crystal detectors and the replacement of earphones with loud speakers, together with other improvements, greatly increased the range and quality of reception. Television today is scarcely more of a novelty than broadcasting was in 1920. These developments have created great industries.

Brilliant Triumph Scored By Kingsford-Smith

Australian Has Proved Himself One Of World's Greatest Aviators

If the British Empire suffered any loss in aviation prestige through the recent disaster that befell Great Britain's great airship the R-101, that prestige would seem to be restored by two outstanding later achievements. These were the flight of a Canadian aviator, Captain Erol Boyd, from Newfoundland to England, and now the brilliant triumph of Wing-Commander Kingsford-Smith of Australia in flying from England to his own country with such speed as to clip more than five days from the previous record. Kingsford-Smith completed this 10,000-mile flight in the remarkable time of nine days, 21 1/2 hours as against the 15 1/2 days it took Bert Hinkley, the previous record-holder, to make this trip in 1928. Kingsford-Smith's time is the more impressive in view of his impaired physical condition of late. Shortly before his flight he had undergone two operations and had experienced other illnesses, and was advised by his doctor not to make the flight.

The view is expressed that this Australian aviator's achievements are of a more impressive nature even than those of Col. Lindbergh, the American, whose great solo flight from New York to Paris and whose tour of the country at home and in neighboring countries since that time have stamped him as perhaps the world's premier peace-time ace. Certainly Kingsford-Smith's achievements, in crossing the Pacific, then the Atlantic, and now in making this 10,000-mile hop across the vast sea and terrain of the southern world, warrant his being regarded as one of the greatest aviators the world has known. He has distinctly scored in the history of the country, the British community of nations as a whole. He has written his name on the British Empire upon the scroll of daring and achievement in the skies.—Regina (Evening) Leader-Post.

Ancient Barley

Specimen Of Three Thousand Year Old Barley Received By Manitoba Agricultural College

The Manitoba Agricultural College has just received a specimen of three thousand year old barley from Palestine. This was found by the famous archaeologist, Sir Flinders Petrie, and has reached the college through the generosity of the director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Archaeology, at Toronto, Dr. C. T. Curry. The barley was discovered in grain pits at Tell-Fara, Palestine, which date back to the time of King Solomon. The barley has much the color and consistency of charcoal, but the shape of the seeds or broken pieces of seeds shows the characteristic form of barley very clearly.

Among the New Fruits

Port Arthur Man Grows Orange Peach and Banana Melon

Further samples of Port Arthur banana belt products have been shown by A. Swanson, who grew pomegranates which attracted so much attention recently. Mr. Swanson displayed a new kind of melon, described as the banana melon. In shape it is like a banana and a cucumber and in texture it is like a melon. The other product of his backyard garden was an orange peach. It appears much like a hybrid of the orange and peach. In taste it is more like a grapefruit. Both the banana melon and the orange peach grow on vines.

The refinery of the Canadian Sugar Factories Limited at Raymond, Alberta, will likely be kept working up to the end of January, the crop of beets having been heavy this year. In the neighborhood of 11,000 tons. Slicing of beets began September 25th last.

Gem Will Be Priceless

WHEN FOOD SOURS... Sweeten the Stomach instantly

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been overstimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless liquid; pleasant, efficient and harmless. But a little excess acid, it has remained the standard with physicians for more than 50 years.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NOVEMBER 9

THOMAS—THE HONEST DOUBTER

Golden Text: "Thomas answered and said unto Him, 'My Lord and My God!'"—John 20:28.
Lesson: John 11:16-16; 14:5-8; 20:24-29; 21:1, 2.
Devotional Reading: Proverbs 3:13-20.

Explanations and Comments

Thomas the Fessitator, John 11:16-16.—When Jesus told the disciples that Lazarus was fallen asleep, they took his words literally, and he told them plainly that Lazarus was dead. And then Jesus added words that at first sight were strange for the disciples to hear. "But I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe." When Jesus said, "The sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby," it was for Jesus a great opportunity to render service and inspire faith.

"Let us go unto him," thus Jesus announced His intention of going to Bethany. Thomas who is called Didymus, "Twin," means twin, "Let us go also, for that we may die with him."

Thomas the Practical, 14:5-8. Read John 14:1-4. In His last discourse with His disciples Jesus told that He was going to prepare a place for them in His Father's house. When He said, "And whither I go, ye know the way," Thomas voiced his failure to understand the words: "Lord, we know not whither Thou goest; how know we the way?" Thomas was still expecting Jesus to establish an earthly kingdom, and this obsession prevented him from grasping the meaning of His Master's words. "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life," Jesus answered. "The Kingdom which I have come to reveal, is not an earthly one; the mansions of which I have spoken are in heaven, not on earth. To share in My Kingdom is to share that state of exalted and blissful communion with the Father, which is not possible on earth. I depart to heaven, to enter that state of bliss; and you may follow and enjoy it, too, if you will have faith in Me as the one Mediator between God and Man (the Way), the one Teacher authorized to reveal the things of God (the Truth), and the one author of spiritual life (the Life)."

"without the Way there is no going; without the Truth there is no knowing; without the Life there is no living; I am the Way which thou shouldst pursue; the Truth which thou shouldst believe; the Life which thou shouldst hope for."—Thomas A. Kempis.

Thomas the Doubter, 20:24, 25.—Read the account of His appearance in the evening to His disciples, John 20:19-23. Thomas was not among them at that time; he was the only one of the eleven disciples to whom that first Easter was not Easter. He would not credit their report that they had seen the Lord. Thomas stoutly maintained that nothing less than the evidence of his own senses—the putting of his finger into the print of the nails, and his hand into His wounded side—would convince him of so stupendous a miracle as the resurrection of his Lord.

Thomas Convinced, 20:26-29. Again Jesus appeared, and after the customary greeting, "Peace be unto you," He turned to Thomas and said: "Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand and put it into my side; and be not faithless but believing."

Another Proof Given Thomas, John 21:1, 2.—Peter, Nathaniel, James and John, Thomas, and two other disciples, were back in Galilee. In the old days, by the Sea of Galilee Jesus manifested Himself to them; this was the occasion of which we learned in our lesson last week, when Jesus forgave Peter.

It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know. Be sure to get genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for over fifty years in correcting excess acid. See bottles—any drugstore. The genuine is always a liquid—never made in tablet form. Look for the name Phillips on wrapper and bottle.

Has Faith In Sub Trip

Stefansson Believes Wilkins' Voyage To Pole Will Be A Success

Vilhjaurm Stefansson, who has spent most of his life in the Arctic circles, is firmly convinced that Sir Hubert Wilkins' voyage to the North Pole in a submarine will be a success. Sir Hubert was second in command during Stefansson's 1913-1916 Arctic expedition.

"If I were an insurance agency," he said, "and were to write a policy on Wilkins and his party, I would insure them for less in a submarine trip than I would in a polar flight in an airplane."

"The reason I believe the experiment will work out is that there are no icebergs within 400 miles of the North Pole. There are ice floes, but those floes are of no great depth and a submarine might easily pass under them."

"Many people think the Arctic seas are infested with icebergs. This is not the case. If it were true, such an undertaking as Wilkins suggests would be impracticable, for icebergs have a depth of a thousand feet or more."

Caramel Pudding

One of the most delicious desserts one can serve is one especially loved by children. It is called Caramel Pudding. Here it is: "Place an unopened can of Borden's Eagle Brand Condensed Milk in a kettle of boiling water and simmer for two and a half hours, being careful not to let the kettle boil dry. Remove can, cool and chill. Remove top of can, cutting along the side of can—not the top—so that the contents may be removed whole; place on a serving dish and garnish with broken nut meats and whipped cream. To serve individually, cut in slices, garnish with nut meats, and whipped cream—or use plain unsweetened cream, with or without garnish."

Purebred Bull Purchase Act

Alberta Farmers Are Taking Advantage Of Provision of New Enactment

Farmers of Alberta in considerable numbers are taking advantage of the provision of the Purebred Bull Purchase Act passed at the last session of the Legislature. An unusual feature of the situation, it is pointed out, was the fact that many applicants sought Red Polled bulls, which had not been much in demand in the past. Dairy short-horn bulls were also in demand. It is considered that the present movement is a good sign, indicating a return to diversified farming.

"But—that's it," she said with sudden courage. "Did you hear what that dear old man said to me to-night? He said: 'Give him plenty of rope to run on.' And you'd be freer without me, Nick, on this wonderful trip—a thousand times freer. You've given me the happiest week of my whole life. Only—only I should want you to come back to me again."

Nick looked at her. The moon was so bright that he saw distinctly the sweet curve of her lips, and the soft, dark hair above her brow. Something in her nearness made him curiously inarticulate, and she misconstrued his silence.

"I could go back," she hesitated, "and—when you got tired of roaming (and I suppose even the most confirmed vagabond has such moments), why—I'd be waiting, and—glad to see you."

She could no longer control the tremble in her voice, and the sound awakened Nick from the trance her words had brought upon him.

"So that's your problem?" he said quietly. "Well, my precious little wife, I'm relieved to hear that you'd be glad to see me! For just a moment I wondered if you were weary of your bargain. As for myself, Gay, I don't care for that long rope. It's so long that I can't see you at the other end. I don't want my freedom without you to share it. I know I'm a kid in lots of ways, dear—too much of a kid to know how dearly I loved you, even a week ago. But I know now that answers your problem, doesn't it?"

He would have kissed her, but she moved from him a space, and said, her voice still trembling: "Oh, Nick, you are always so precious. Are you never afraid of—Life?"

"No," Nick answered. He sat quite still, looking down on the moon-lit shadows in the valley. "No," he repeated. "Perhaps if I were a woman."

"Still . . . my mother was not afraid. It was she who made me see life as I do. She was a poet, my mother. She didn't often put her poetic fancies into words; but the night she died . . ."

Again Nick seemed lost in thought; but as Gay's hand slipped into his he clapped it hungrily, and said: "I've never told this, Gay, even to Aunt Nettie, who knew all my secrets. My mother called me to her, because, desperately to be honest. "No, dear, I'm not afraid. Oh, Nick!" she cried, and faced him, her eyes like stars. "Oh, Nick, life is so wonderful! Just now I'm not afraid of anything!"

CHAPTER IV.

Gay did not know that she touched one of life's mountain-peaks when she spoke those words. Later she was to understand, and look back upon that hour as something precious. For life's big moments do not just. Their beauty perishes like the beauty of a rose, leaving only a fragrance and a memory.

Standing there in the moonlight with Nick's arm about her, Gay felt a sense of security and happiness that, in her ignorance of life, she thought must last forever. Nick loved her; and she was not afraid! Nothing would ever make her afraid again, yet four months later, when they stood together on another hillside, she stared at her—not fear for herself and the big mystery before her, but fear that because of a Nick's coveted freedom was at an end.

It had been a glorious four months. Leaving the "rusty flivver" with Mr. Bartlett, they had gone forth on foot, because Gay wouldn't let Nick change his long-laid plans.

"That's right," the old man said at parting. "He'll be happier to do just what he set out to do; and there's the railroad to bring you back if either of you gets sick or gives in on the job. You got plenty of money along, Nick? I ain't advisin' you to spend any more's necessary; but there's nothin' makes for comfort on a journey like a full pocketbook. If you need more'n you got I'll be glad to supply you till it's convenient to pay back."

"That's mighty kind of you," Nick answered. "But I think I've enough to see us through, thanks to my late uncle's not making the will in which he threatened to disinherit me! Thank you for housing the flivver for us, Mr. Bartlett. We'll call for it sometime during the next two years."

"All right sonny; but don't let that little lady get tuckered out. If she does, just ship her back to me and I'll be proud to look after her while you're gallivantin' round the world. Good-bye, m'am. I'd be pleased to have you drop me a card from every port."

"I can't forget to," Gay promised; then added, as something wistful in his eyes caught at her heart, "Will you kiss me good-bye in place of the father I can't remember?"

"That'll suit," he replied heartily. "If you'll guarantee it won't make no hard feelin' betwixt Nick and me! Good-bye, children. Don't forget your Uncle Sam when you're off a-conquerin' the universe."

Nick grinned.

Says India Will Remain Loyal

Viscount Willingdon Convinced That People Of India As a Whole Will Remain Steadfast

"It is my belief that if we continue the administration of India in a sound and satisfactory way, being sympathetic to her aims but at the same time demanding law and order, the people of India as a whole will remain steadfastly loyal to Great Britain, and we need not worry about the agitators who are trying to stir up trouble." This was the conviction expressed by Viscount Willingdon, Governor-General of Canada, to members of the United Services Institute at Halifax, whose guest he was at luncheon.

Viscount Willingdon referred to the limitations placed on him, as a speaker, by his position, and remarked that he had "become almost a genius in speaking on nothing for a quarter of an hour."

His reference to India was made while touching upon the contribution made by the dominions in wartime, and of the present esprit de corps of the land, sea and air forces of Canada. India, too, had made sacrifices during the war, sending a million men to various fronts.

"One of the most important and critical conferences ever held," was his excellency's view of the Imperial conference.

Touching on the general situation in Canada the governor-general said he was perfectly confident the present depression would soon pass away. "I know anything of the spirit of the Canadian people I know that this depression will soon go on with that sound and solid progress that has brought about the great development of this country."

Wartime Memories

British Foreign Office Would Discourage Perpetuation Of Memories Of War

The British foreign office, wishing to discourage the perpetuation of memories of wartime antagonisms during official visits, has proposed to all European governments that henceforth memorial wreaths should not be laid on cenotaphs or tombs of unknown soldiers during official visits.

The Labor Government has issued no formal announcement of the step, but it is confirmed by the department officials. The government feels that in formal international intercourse the less emphasis on war the better.

An Old For All Men.—The sailor, the blacksmith, the lumberman, the farmer, the out-door laborer and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain, relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lameness and overcome rheumatism, it is excellent. Therefore, it should have a place in all home medicine chests and be amongst those taken on a journey.

Still Entitled To Pensions

Settlers Abroad May Keep Up Insurance In Britain

The British Ministry of Health has issued a notification, reminding settlers, who have left Great Britain or Northern Ireland, within the last year or two, that under the British Pensions Act, which came into force at the beginning of the year, they may be entitled equally with those who have recently gone overseas, to revive or keep up their insurance for the purpose of securing pensions and benefits for themselves and their dependents.

If, however, they left the country before January 2, 1930, they must apply to the Ministry of Health, London, England, before the end of this year. The full facts of their case should be set forth in writing in order that the ministry may decide whether the person is eligible for pension or benefits.

Cattle Sales

The Annual Livestock Market and Meat Trade Review published by the Dominion Department of Agriculture, shows that during 1929 a total of 794,435 head of cattle were sold in Canadian stockyards. This is substantially below the figure for any of the preceding five years. The total for calves, 378,560 represents a gain in sales of 17,500 head. Toronto led the cattle trade with a total of 315,021 head, while Montreal led sales in the calf trade with a total of 138,207.

Text Book Controversy

U.S. Text Book Used In Australia Described As Insulting

A United States text book—Hayes and Moon's Modern History—adopted as a standard book in the state of Victoria, Australia, has become the centre of a controversy.

The Australian Natives' Association, a national organization of Australian-born citizens, has protested against the book, describing it as biased, untrue, and insulting. Leston, Minister of Education, has threatened with opposition at the next elections if he does not withdraw the book.

In particular the Australian Natives' Association say the following two statements are falsifications of the truth and an insult to British and Australian troops:

"The British conducted a motley army, composed chiefly of colonial troops, and landed it on the tip of Gallipoli Peninsula, close to the Dardanelles."

"The United States was the only great power that fought in the war without demanding or even desiring territorial gains for herself. She should be credited with a loftiness of purpose and unselfishness that could hardly be matched in all history."

The Japanese Method

Government Makes Law Which May Reduce Grade Crossing Accidents

Japan is having trouble with grade crossings. More accidents are being caused by motorists attempting to beat trains across intersections. The court of that country, however, is determined to aid in reducing grade crossing accidents. In the future the motorist who races trains to crossings will do so at his own risk. His heirs will have no claim on any railway company, public or private. The new ruling recognizes that the country will be benefited more by faster train schedules than by preserving the lives of those who are incautious enough to attempt to beat the locomotive.

Little Helps For This Week

"Be ready to every good work."—Titus iii. 1.

Into thy charge hath He not given space. All of thine own to make look green and sweet.

To be a haven unto troubled souls. To be a resting-place for weary feet.

Doth He require at thy hands aught but this—

To let thy garden show itself so fair. That others seeing it shall straightaway go. And fill the portions given to their care?

And what is work? Is it only some task of hand or brain? Is it only accomplished when we see tangible tokens of our toil? Or is it, too, the checking of a petulant or thoughtless word, the subduing of an unworthy desire, the rising above the subtle temptation that woos us to spiritual indolence, the striving to keep fresh and blooming the garden-plot God has given us all for our own, and where only by heart-work the fair flowers of "Love," "Joy," and "Peace," can be brought to bloom?

No wonder the people of the United States vote dry, when money is being spent in commodities just as unnecessary as liquor in the following manner in one year: 2000 tons of rouge, 4000 tons of face powder, 6,000 tons of vanishing, nourishing and other facial creams, 9,000 tons of skin lotion and more than 50,000 tons of cold cream. Most of the above go towards maintaining that school girl and school boy complexion.

The beautiful business in the United States is worth $1,000,000,000 annually. A monster parade of upwards of 1500 young people, sponsored by the Gyros and Elks, featured the Hallo'een entertainment at Kimberley. In the night procession, each carried torchlights. Committees had been busy, providing hot dog stands, music, procession, bonfire, boxing platform, costumes, community singing and general sports and when the procession arrived at the grounds a monster bonfire was lighted and the programme proceeded. No damage was done by the children around Kimberley, for they were asked by their parents, teachers and the public to refrain from soaping windows, etc.

During the recent campaign in the United States, Clarence Darrow, noted attorney, made the statement: "I like to take a drink. That is why I'm against prohibition, and I don't want any fool preacher sticking his nose in my business and telling me I mustn't. It is the height of impudence and the last word in tyranny for any one man to tell another what he should eat or drink. I object to their meddling. Liberty is at an end under such circumstances. What's the matter with liquor? It is old and respectable. Your row is with the Lord—he makes liquor. Let nature take its course, and it is all over this great and dry (7) country."
